A Stitch in Time? aims to evidence the contribution of the third sector to the Reshaping Care for Older People agenda.

A Stitch in Time Newsletter

Hello Jane

Wishing you a very Happy New Year from the A Stitch in Time? team. Celebrations are continuing into 2015 here at Evaluation Support Scotland in our 10th year, as we have the final event for A Stitch in Time? and a parliamentary reception. Read on for more details.

Patchwork Bits and Pieces

As we are nearing the end of A Stitch in Time? we would like to say a big thank you to all of you who have worked with us on this programme especially all the members of the working groups and those who provided case studies and photographs. Your contribution has added hugely to the success of A Stitch in Time?

All sewn up?

The final A Stitch in Time? event 'All sewn up?' will take place on 3 March 2015, 1.30pm - 5pm at the Radisson Blu Hotel, The Royal Mile, Edinburgh. At this event you will learn what A Stitch in Time? has achieved, and will have an opportunity to contribute to what could happen next. There will be time to give your feedback and to get ideas about achieving better outcomes and evidence for working with older people. Book online here.

Celebrate with us!

Immediately following the 'All sewn up?' event there will be a Parliamentary Reception hosted by Mr Jim Eadie MSP at 6pm on 3 March at the Scottish Parliament to celebrate the end of A Stitch in Time? The keynote address will be given by Mr Alex Neil MSP, Cabinet Secretary for Social Justice, Communities & Pensioners' Rights. Come and celebrate with us. Book your place now as places are limited by emailing Lydia Morrow.

Can you help us?

We want to hear from you! Can you tell us about how you are using the A Stitch in Time? publications? Are they useful? In what circumstances are they helpful? Did we miss anything?

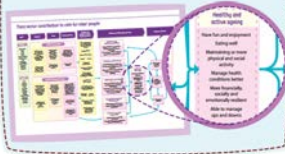

Please give us your feedback, whenever you use them, by completing the survey here. Thank you.
